

DHV

DHV is a leading international consultancy and engineering firm, providing services and innovative solutions in Transportation, Water, Building & Industry, Urban and Regional Development, and Environment & Sustainability.

Our range of services covers the entire project cycle, including management consultancy, advice, design & engineering, project management, contract management and asset management.

DHV, headquartered in the Netherlands, is part of the DHV Group which maintains a network of 70 offices worldwide. Our projects are able to call upon the extensive expertise network of the entire DHV Group, benefiting from an integrated approach and a shared commitment to the sustainable development of our living environment.

The DHV Group has a staff of about 5,500 and its turnover in 2008 was 468 million.

www.dhv.com